THE PROMISE OF SPRING

Arizona's Cactus League welcomes fans back

By Charlie Vascellaro

With a full slate of games scheduled for the 2022 Cactus League spring training season traveling baseball fans are seeking a return to normalcy in the game's traditional annual rite of spring.

Opening Day for the 2022 Cactus League season is scheduled for February 26, with a full slate of eight games on the schedule. Looking at that first square on the calendar our pick for the best game to attend would be the Los Angeles Angels versus the Milwaukee Brewers at American Family Fields in Phoenix's Maryvale neighborhood.

The Chicago Cubs also host Los Angeles Dodgers at Sloan Park in Mesa on Opening Day (Feb. 26) as well.

The Brewers were a surprise success story in 2021 winning the National League Central division with a 95-67 record mostly on the strength of their pitching staff anchored by 2021 Cy Young Award winner Corbin Burnes. The Brewers and Burnes got off to a great start when he set major league record by striking out 58 batters from the beginning of the season before issuing his first walk. Burnes finished the year with an 11-5 record and a National League leading 2.43 ERA with 234 strikeouts in 167 innings pitched, edging Los Angeles Dodgers ace Max Scherzer in Cy Young voting.

While the Los Angeles Angels fourth place season may have been a disappointment two-way player phenom Shohei Ohtani emerged as major league baseball's premier attraction earning the 2021 AL MVP Award to place alongside of his 2018 Rookie of the Year Award. Ohtani's season-long performance was beyond spectacular knocking 46 home runs with 100 RBI and .965 OPS (on base + slugging percentage). He also led the AL with eight triples and the dubious distinction of being caught stealing 10 times, both are testament to his speed and hustle. But that's not all; Ohtani posted a 9-2 record as a pitcher with a 3.18 ERA and 156 strikeouts in 130 innings. Baseball's number one marquee attraction Ohtani will most certainly be given the ball as the Angels Opening Day starter for the 2022 season and perhaps the Cactus League opener as well.

The Angels will play the team's home opener the next day, February 27, at Tempe Diablo Stadium against the 2021 AL Central Division champion Chicago White Sox led by 2020 AL MVP Jose Abreu who eclipsed the 30-home-run mark for the fifth time in his eight-year career while surpassing 100 RBI for the sixth time. The White Sox formidable pitching corps were led by seven-year veteran Carlos Rodon who reached a career high 13 wins with a 2.37 ERA and threw his first no-hitter on April 14, 2021.

The Brewers travel across town to play the NL West division champion San Francisco Giants at Scottsdale Stadium on February 28. The Giants set a franchise record with 107 wins in 2021 fighting tooth and nail, all-season long with their historic rival Los Angeles Dodgers finishing one game in front on the season's final day. An experienced veteran Giants roster was led by 12-year catcher Buster Posey who announced his retirement at the end of the season at the age of 34.

The teams will face each other twice in the 2022 Cactus League season with the Giants visiting the Dodgers Camelback Ranch ballpark in Glendale on March 11 and the Dodgers venturing to Scottsdale Stadium on March 23.

CITIES AND TOWNS

Voted the #1 city to live in by Ranking Arizona and Money Magazine, the City of Peoria (visitpeoriaz.com, 623-773-700) the Peoria Sports Complex has served as the shared spring training home of the San Diego Padres and Seattle Mariners since 1994, triggering the Cactus League's expansion into the West Valley. At the center of the city's scenic splendor Lake Pleasant, the state's second largest lake, and the Lake Pleasant Regional Park provide a desert oasis of boating, kayaking, water skiing, scuba diving, camping, and fishing. The expansive stretch of Peoria's reach contains 33 parks, 20 miles of trails, and five golf courses including the Quintero Golf Course and Country Club, named the #1 Best Public Golf Course by Golf Digest and Golf Weekly magazines for 2016 and was ranked #1 in Arizona by Golf Advisor magazine.

A more metropolitan experience can be enjoyed in Peoria's P83 Entertainment District where arts and culture also abound with a full square mile of restaurants, bars, hotels and the two live theaters at the Peoria Center for the Performing Arts.

A mecca of outdoor adventure with more than 50 miles of hiking, biking and horse-riding trails winding their way through and around the lush desert landscape, the Town of Fountain Hills (experiencefountainhills.com, 480-816- 5185) is also an arts and culture destination set in an ideal residential community.

The Fountain Hills Botanical Gardens is an eight-acre wildlife preserve containing 29 Sonoran Desert plants identified along a half-mile trail winding through rock formations, accessible from Fountain Hills Boulevard on its eastern border.

Fountain Hills, Fort McDowell and the Verdes area are home to the highest concentration of world-class golf courses in Arizona. Known as the Sonoran Desert Golf Trail, there are six of Arizona's finest public 18-hole courses located on five area golf clubs surrounded by the scenic vistas of the McDowell Mountains and the Tonto National Forest. Designed by some of the most recognized names in golf club design, each course reflects the spirit of its designer and offers a unique blend of challenges to the golfer.

The Fountain Festival of Fine Arts and Crafts (February 25 – 27, 2022) features the work of approximately 500 artists drawing nearly 200,000 visitors over the weekend with food booths, a beer garden and live entertainment. The St. Patrick's Day "Greening" of the town's world-famous Fountain in Fountain Park is scheduled to take place twice this year (12:00 noon and 4:00 p.m.) as part of the day's festivities with corned beef and cabbage, Irish music and a beer garden available from (10 a.m. – 6 p.m. March, 2018).

In a flashback to the 1974 and 1988 World Series the Dodgers visit the Oakland A's at Hohokam Stadium in Mesa on March 1. The A's finished third in a tough AL West division in 2021. Slugging first baseman Matt Olsen reached career highs with 39 home runs, 111 RBI and a .271 batting average.

After finishing dead last in the AL West with a 60-102 record the Texas Rangers were perhaps baseball's busiest buyers during the off season signing former L.A. Dodgers shortstop Core Seager to a 10-year $325 million contract and second baseman Marcus Semien to a seven-year $176 million deal. The Rangers also shored up their pitching staff snatching former Rockies hurler Jon Gray for four years at $56 million. The Rangers visit the Arizona Diamondbacks at Salt River Fields on March 2. The Diamondbacks tied the AL Baltimore Orioles with the worst record in the majors last year with 52 wins and 110 losses. Outfielder Ketel Marte was the best player on a bad team knocking 14 home runs with 50 RBI and a .318 batting average in limited action.

The Seattle Mariners were in contention for their post season appearance since 2001 right up until the end of the season finishing in second place with a 90-72 record falling two wins shy of a wild-card playoff berth. Right fielder Mitch Haninger reached career-highs with 30 home runs and 100 RBI. Kyle Seager, the face of the Mariners franchise during his 11 years with the team also reached career bests with 35 home runs and 101 RBI and was unceremoniously bought out of his contract option at the end of the season. The Mariners will play the Colorado Rockies at Salt River Fields on March 3. The Rockies finished fourth in the NL West with a 74-87 record. First baseman C.J. Cron led the Rockies with 28 HRs and 92 RBI.

The Rockies travel west to face the Cincinnati Reds at the Goodyear Ballpark on March 4. The Reds hung around in the NL Central deep into the season and were 12 games over .500 as late as August 27 ultimately landing in third place with an 83-79 record. Right fielder Nick Castellanos enjoyed a breakout season reaching career high totals with 34 HRS, 100 RBI a .309 batting average and .939 OPS.

A popular pre-season pick to click in the NL West the San Diego Padres jumped out to a good start occupying first place at the end of May but petered out down the stretch finishing in third place with a 79-83 record. Despite missing 30 games due to injuries shortstop Fernando Tatis still led the NL with 42 home runs. The Padres host the Cleveland Guardians at the Peoria Sports Complex on March 5. The Guardians window of opportunity to reach the heights of the teams most recent World Series appearance in 2016 seems to have closed with the departure of star shortstop Francisco Lindor prior to the 2021 season. Third baseman Joe Ramirez led the team with 36 HRs and 103 RBI but the 2022 season is the final year of his contract with Cleveland.

The Kansas City Royals will host the Los Angeles Angels at Surprise Stadium on March 6. The Royals 2015 World Series championship seems like more than seven years ago; the team has not posted a winning season since. Stalwart catcher Salvador Perez seems to have tapped into a fountain of youth hitting leading the AL with 48 home runs and 121 RBI, career-highs in both categories in his 10th season at age 31.

That's a look at the of what the first week of the Cactus League season has to offer.

Let the games begin!

ALL-STAR ACCOMMODATIONS

Ever wonder what it would be like to live in Arizona on a permanent or even part-time basis like the seasonal “snowbirds” do in the winter and spring?

The Residences at Mountain Shadows (5445 E. Lincoln Drive, Paradise Valley, 866.819.2818 www.mountainshadows.com) offers condominiums and suites that provide an indulgent desert escape experience that also feels like living in a new home. With a backdrop of iconic Camelback Mountain, The Residences suites range in size from 1,000 to 3,410 square feet, from studio apartments to three-bedroom penthouses. The resort’s Hearth ’61 restaurant features locally sourced and regionally inspired cuisine.

A preferred golfing destination The Short Course at Mountain Shadows is a true par-3 course woven into the fabric of its desert landscape surroundings.

For ambitious early risers the proximity of Camelback Mountain provides an alluring and inspirational backdrop to the Mountain Shadows resort and the hotel provides shuttle service to the mountain’s Echo Canyon Trail for ambitious early risers.

Whether you’re staying at Downtown Scottsdale’s iconic Hotel Valley Ho (6850 E Main Street, Scottsdale, 480.526.4710, www.valleyho.com) or just stopping by to soak in the sites, the recently remodeled ZuZu restaurant and the hotel’s lobby bar are a sleek and stylish immersion into the hotel’s mid-century modern theme. The whole place feels like you’ve been invited to the same party as Peter Sellers in 1968’s classic film, “The Party.” ZuZu is open for breakfast, brunch, lunch and dinner all creatively crafted by Executive Chef Russell LaCasce.

Valley Ho’s two pools offer contrasting but complimentary experiences; the larger, circular Oh Pool located just off the lobby is more of a social occasion with music playing and a full bar and kitchen on spot. The OHasis, rectangular lap pool on the hotel’s quieter corridor is ideal for serious morning exercise and contemplative afternoons spent reading and basking in the sun.

THE GOODYEAR BALLPARK

The spring training home of the Cincinnati Reds and newly re-named Cleveland Guardians the Goodyear Ballpark (1933 S. Ballpark Way, Goodyear, 623.882.3120, www.goodyearbp.com) was the Cactus League's newest ballpark at the time of its completion in 2009 at a cost of $108 million. The state-of-the-art training facility which serves as the year-round player development complex for both the Reds and Guardians brought both teams to move their spring training operations from Florida to Arizona.

The Cleveland Guardians (formerly Indians) rejoined the Cactus League after a nearly two-decade hiatus moving to Goodyear for the 2009 spring training season after previously conducting the team's spring camp in Tucson, AZ from 1947-1992.

The Cincinnati Reds relocated to Goodyear from multiple long-time Florida locales in 2010 bringing the Cactus League to its current high-water mark of 15 of major league baseball's 30 teams.

Designed by the renowned ballpark architectural firm of HOK Sport of Kansas City, the complex includes an 8,000-seat ballpark stadium with a 1,500 outfield-lawn seating capacity, six luxury suites, terrace seating on the third level behind home plate and a 300-seat right field pavilion.

A signature design element of the ballpark is piece of modern fiberglass sculpture called "The Ziz" fabricated by internationally famous artist Donald Lipski. "The Ziz serves as a gathering place for fans in front of the ballpark's main home plate entrance and was named one of the "Best Public Art Projects in the U.S." by Americans for the Arts.

Trevor's also contains a walk-in humididor with more than 100 selections of fine cigars and a daily happy-hour from 4:00-7:00 pm featuring reduced prices, local food trucks, live music and a wide array of community related events.

With three locations in The Valley all within close proximity to Cactus League Ballparks, Loco Patrón (www.locopatron.com) has been serving the valley award-winning tacos and handcrafted margaritas for nearly two decades.

The original Loco Patrón location (222 S Mill, Ave #15, Tempe, 480.699.0922) was established by a few Arizona State University Sun Devil alumni in the bustling campus neighborhood close by Tempe Diablo Stadium in 2004.

Conveniently located just a-few-blocks walking distance from Scottsdale Stadium, Loco Scottsdale (4228 N. Scottsdale Rd., 480.874.0033) is in the heart of the Old Town/Downtown district.

A straight shot from the Salt River Fields spring training home of the Arizona Diamondbacks and Colorado Rockies, Loco Brewery North Scottsdale (14950 N Northsight, Scottsdale) is among North Scottsdale premier sports bars, the large patio out front and dining room inside are completely lined with large screen T.V.'s and sports memorabilia motif.

But the real "main course" at all three locations might just be the selection of signature Mexican style craft beers on all three locations menus. The Ocho IPA, Sir Veza Lager, Señor Hopper IPA, and Loco Gold Golden Ale. Seasonal options include The Romper Cucumber Lime Wheat Ale (seasonal brew for the Waste Management™ Phoenix Open golf tournament) as well as the Pineapple Orange infused Cactus Cooler (Summer), Holy Molé Chocolate Chipotle Oatmeal Stout (Winter), and Loco Vaca Cream Ale (Univ. of Wisconsin Football season).

With five Valley locations Twin Peaks "lodge style" restaurants have made for a welcome addition to the Valley's sports bar/man cave landscape. Walking into any one of the Twin Peaks locations feels a bit like being transported into a comfortable cabin in the mountains akin to a lumberjack walking into their local lodge. Twin Peaks signature 29-degree draft beers are consistently served in perfectly-frosted 22-oz man-size mugs with a rotating selection of fan favorites and in-house brews.

All Twin Peaks locations are lined wall-to-wall with TVs and a variety of sports available at every angle from title fights to spring training and the NCAA basketball tournament. You're sure to find a Twin Peaks location close to any of the Cactus League ballparks.

Locations include; 8787 E Frank Lloyd Wright Boulevard, Scottsdale, 480.483.0921, 6922 N 95th Ave., Glendale, 623.233.5700, 2135 E Camelback Road, Phoenix, 602.954.8946, 2050 E Rio Salado Parkway, Tempe, 480-687.3122, and the newest location coming soon to Deer Valley.
